

BRIDE OF A DAY TELLS HOW IT ALL HAPPENED

Mother-in-Law Came to Her With
"Young Lady" and Took Her Husband Away.

In defense of her plea for a week's alimony and $25 counsel fee, Mrs. Lillian Blank Christmas, who is now twenty years old, told in papers filed to-day of the separation of herself and her husband on the day after they were married, two years ago. The case is now before Justice Blumstein in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn.

She was married to William John Christmas, she said, by the Rev. G. Sommer of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church at her mother's home. There was a reception for the neighbors. At 11 o'clock at night the bridegroom discovered that he had provided no abiding place for himself and his wife and Mrs. Blank was not cordial, so he went to his own home for the rest of the night. He was back early the next day, she said, and soon after him his mother arrived.

"She had some young girl with her and she asked my husband to leave me and go home with her. He said he did not want to go and that he loved me. Then Mrs. Christmas said to the young lady, 'My son is married.' The young lady fell on my bed and cried. Then Mrs. Christmas took my husband by the arm and took him away forcibly. The young lady went along and I followed. They went to the minister who married us, and he asked me if I loved my husband, and I said I did. He said he loved me and I said I loved him, and he told us he couldn't do anything about it."

Mr. Christmas said he left his wife's home because his mother-in-law beat him.

DEAD AIRMEN'S ROMANCE.

Mont. Arthur Leaves His Fortune to Girl of Fourteen.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—A romantic attachment to a girl of fourteen is disclosed by the will of the late Lieut. Arthur, an army aviator, aged twenty, who was killed at Montrose last May.

The will leaves the whole of his fortune, $15,000, to Winona Constance Roper, daughter of a West Hartlepool shipbuilder and granddaughter of Sir Robert Roper.

On the body of the aviator was found a miniature portrait of the girl, which he was in the habit of wearing on his breast.

INVESTIGATE FIREMEN'S FUND

Grand Jury to Inquire Into Charges of Legislative Activity.

After a preliminary investigation of a month, District Attorney Whitman decided to-day to lay before the Grand Jury next week the charges made by former Fire Commissioner Johnson, that the funds of the Firemen's Benefit Association, of which James D. Clifford is President, had been used for legislative activity.

Assistant District Attorney William De Ford, who made the preliminary investigation, has gone over the receipts and expenditures of the association during the last five years, with the result that he has recommended to District Attorney Whitman that the charges be laid before the Grand Jury.

HOW RESINOL CLEARS AWAY UGLY PIMPLES

It is so easy to get rid of pimples and blackheads with Resinol, and it costs so little, too, that any one whose face is disfigured by these pests is foolish to keep on with useless creams, washes, or complicated "beauty treatments." See how simply it is done:

Rather your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and hot water, then apply a little Resinol Ointment very gently. Let this stay on ten minutes and wash off with Resinol Soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished to see how quickly the healing, antiseptic Resinol medication soothes and cleanses every pore, leaving the complexion clear and velvety.

Resinol stops itching instantly and speedily heals eczema and other skin humors, dandruff, sores, burns and piles. Sold by every druggist, Resinol Ointment, 50 cents and $1. Resinol Soap, 25 cents. For free trial, write Dept. 35-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Don't be fooled by "imitations."

Pulmonol

A. V. PAYNE, M. D.
NOT AN ORDINARY
"COUGH" MEDICINE
but a powerful remedy for pulmonary troubles.

Coughs, Bronchitis,
Weak Lungs, Night Sweats,
Run Down Condition, Loss of Appetite, Loss of Weight, following Pneumonia and Grippe, Delicate Children, Hemorrhages and as a Tonic and Flesh Builder.

Used by brand-name doctors, Pulmonol has been the cause of the recovery of many of the most famous names in the world. It is a powerful remedy for all the above ailments. Coughs, colds, asthma, etc., all leading to the cure of the lungs. "PULMONOL" CHEMICAL CO., N. Y.

Make This Pleasant Cough and Cold Remedy Yourself

Here's the recipe:

Into a pitcher put a tablespoonful of butter, one-quarter cup light brown sugar, an ounce of fresh, whole allspice and a pint of Duff's pure malt whiskey. Let it stand for half an hour, then add one-half pint boiling water. Let it stand again for a short while, and before serving stir well and add the juice of one orange and one lemon. This is to be served in a wine glass.

It is very wholesome, appetizing and strengthening, especially for fever and chills in stormy and blustering weather. Prompt action on such occasions will ward off many a serious and oftentimes fatal attack of bronchitis and pneumonia, as well as irritating coughs and colds. —Advt.
